CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it ; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the seller and (b) to the right of the seller to bid either personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents ; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason ; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it. Messrs. Sotheby make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, unless otherwise agreed, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited ; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co.

are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

AN IMPORTANT GROUP OF DECORATIONS

TO

Admiral Sir Jas. Deans Dundas, G.C.B.

Admiral of the Blue, 1857

J60 Order of the Bath ; Grand Cross badge in gold and enamel ; Breast Star of the Order in silver, with gold front ; Grand Cross badge of the Legion of Honour, in gold and enamel, gold crown, Napoleon III type ; Breast Star of the Order, silver, with eagle in centre ; Grand Cross badge and Breast Star of the Order of the Medjidieh of Turkey, with gold centres ; Naval G.S. medal, with clasp, Egypt (1801) (J. W. D. Dundas, midshipman) ; Crimea, 1 bar Sebastopol (Admiral Sir James Dundas) ; the group mounted in a tooled glazed frame.

 Admiral Sir James W. D. Dundas, formerly Deans, the initials on the Egypt medal have been altered owing to his change of name.

This officer was educated at Edinburgh High School, entered the Navy, March, 1799, as First Class Volunteer on board the Kent 74, in which ship he accompanied the expedition to Holland in August, 1799, and conveyed Sir Ralph Abercromby from Gibraltar to Egypt in December, 1800. Was continually on service during the Napoleonic War and after, including the Crimean War. Full history of this brilliant officer's long and distinguished service is given fully in O'Byrne's Naval Biography
